Dear Parent/Carer

Industrial Action: Wednesday 15th March & Thursday 16th March 2023

You may be aware from recent media coverage the NEU teacher’s union (National Education Union) have announced that their membership has voted in favour of industrial action. The proposed strike is due to a national dispute between the union and the Government and not because of any issues linked to specific schools.

The proposed dates are Wednesday 15th and Thursday 16th March.

Please be assured that we are in the process of assessing the impact this proposed action will have on our capacity to keep our school open to students and we are considering several options.

My apologies for the period of uncertainty and potential disruption and we will update you as soon as possible on the final plans for next week to aid your own child care planning.

Thank you for your ongoing support and understanding.

Yours sincerely
