Dear Parents/Carers

Re: National Express Bus Strikes Suspended

We are writing to you to make you aware that the National Express Bus Strike, planned to start on Thursday 16th March 2023, has been suspended by the trade union Unite, to allow for an improved offer to be balloted on by members. We are informed that if this improved offer is rejected, that indefinite strike action will commence from Monday 20th March.

We understand the importance of your child being in school and want to minimise any further disruption to their education. We want to assure you that school will be open as normal during any bus strikes.

We will of course keep you updated on this situation as soon as we receive any further information, but you may also want to obtain updates directly from National Express via their website: <https://nxbus.co.uk/coventry/service-updates/strike-action>.

Thank you for your continued support.

Yours sincerely
