Statement of Intent

- 1 We are committed to providing a caring, friendly and safe environment for all of our students so they can learn in a relaxed and secure atmosphere. Bullying of any kind is unacceptable at our school. If bullying does occur, all students should be able to tell and know that incidents will be dealt with promptly and effectively. We are a TELLING school. This means that anyone who knows that bullying is happening is expected to tell the staff.

Why is it important to Respond to Bullying?

Bullying hurts. No one deserves to be a victim of bullying. Everybody has the right to be treated with respect. Students who are bullying need to learn different ways of behaving.

Schools have a responsibility to respond promptly and effectively to issues of bullying.

As According to Keeping Children Safe in Education'. School and college staff are particularly important, as they are in a position to identify concerns early, provide help for children, promote children's welfare and prevent concerns from escalating

All staff have a responsibility to provide a safe environment in which children can learn.

Bullying is one form of child-on-child abuse of which all staff should be aware that children can abuse other children (sometimes also referred to as peer-on-peer abuse). We recognize that this can happen both inside and outside of school or college and online. It is important that all staff are aware of and recognise the indicators and signs of child-on-child abuse and know how to identify it and respond to reports. This forms part of the whole school safeguarding Policy.

All staff should understand, that even if there are no reports in their schools or colleges it does not mean it is not happening; it may be the case that it is just not being reported. As such it is important if staff have any concerns regarding bullying or any form of child-on-child abuse that they should speak to a Senior Leader, a college Leader or the designated safeguarding lead (or deputy).

Objectives of this Policy

All governors, teaching and non-teaching staff, students and parents should understand what bullying is.

All governors and teaching and non-teaching staff should know what the school policy is on bullying and follow it when bullying is reported.

All students and parents should know what the school policy is on bullying, and what they should do if bullying arises.

As a school we take bullying seriously. Students and parents should be assured that they will be supported when bullying is reported.

Bullying will not be tolerated.

Procedures

Bullying behaviour or threats of bullying must be investigated and the bullying stopped quickly.

If bullying is suspected we talk to the suspected victim, the suspected bully and any witnesses.

Cases of bullying will be recorded by staff and appropriate action will be taken to resolve the issue both for the benefit of the victim, the perpetrator and the school community.

Help, support and counselling will be given as is appropriate to both the victims and the bullies.

Pastoral teams will be responsible for following up all incidents of recorded bullying and ensuring that action is taken and reviewed to the satisfaction of the victim. All bullying incidents are to be recorded on CPOMS.

An attempt will be made to help the bully (bullies) change their behaviour.

In serious cases parents should be informed and will be asked to come in to attend a meeting to discuss the problem.

If necessary and appropriate, police will be consulted.

We support the victims in the following ways:

- By offering them an immediate opportunity to talk about the experience with their class teacher, or another adult if they choose, and to engage as necessary in a support programme to offer continuing support when they feel they need it.
- By taking disciplinary steps to prevent more bullying.
- Informing the victims' parents/carers
- By reviewing that the measures we put in place are effective.

We also discipline, yet try to help the bullies in the following ways:

- By talking about what happened, to discover why they became involved and to engage in a programme to address their behaviour.
- The bully (bullies) may be asked to genuinely apologise. Other consequences may take place.
- Informing the bullies' parents/carers.
- In serious cases, suspension or even exclusion will be considered
- By continuing to work with the bullies in order to get rid of prejudiced attitudes as far as possible.

Outcomes

If possible, the students will be reconciled.

After the incident / incidents have been investigated and dealt with, each case will be monitored to ensure repeated bullying does not take place.

Instances of bullying will be tracked and reviewed by the school to help plan preventative measures.

Prevention

President Kennedy methods for helping children to prevent bullying through our ethos around the word PRIDE.

Through this we encourage students to treat everyone with Respect.

Encourage students to discuss how they get on with other people and to form positive attitudes towards other people.

Organise the community to minimise opportunities for bullying, e.g. provide increased supervision at problem times.

Use the learning opportunities to discuss aspects of bullying, and the appropriate way to behave towards each other, e.g. during tutor time and within the Bridge and Gateway curriculums.

Deal quickly, firmly and fairly with any complaints, involving parents where necessary.

The School Staff will continue to have a firm but fair discipline structure. The rules should be few, simple and easy to understand.

Not use teaching materials or equipment which gives a bad or negative view of any group because of their ethnic origin, sex, etc.

We will treat bullying as a serious offence and take every possible action to eradicate it from our school.

Review the school policy and its degree of success.
