

Dear Parents, Carers and Students,

I'm delighted to be able to promote the value of reading this week by referring World Book Day on Friday the 4th of March. As we all know, reading is so valuable in so many different ways; the enjoyment of a great story does so much to improve knowledge, language and vocabulary development as well as speaking and writing. I hope students will take the opportunity to share their favourite reads and enter the prize draw.

My congratulations this week go to our Physics Olympiad Competitors with a huge well done to Kush Patel in Year 13 for his 'Top Gold' Award!

Finally can I express my thanks to all students and families for their support over the last half term; I hope everyone enjoys a well earned and healthy break.

I wish you all a great half term holiday,

Mr Clayton, Headteacher

Fantastic Books and Where to Find Them...

This week the Library's recommended reads are....

What's That in Dog Years? by Ben Davis

A boy decides to create a bucket list for his dog who he knows is getting old. Gizmo has been my best friend since the day I was born - he's always been around. But now they're telling me he might not always be around which completely sucks.

I'm determined that me and Gizmo will have lots more fun and adventures before he goes - I mean, he loves parties, deserves pampering, and needs a break by the seaside.

And as for that old saying about how you can't teach an old dog new tricks - it's true, you really can't! Gizmo's bucket list is up and running - unlike Gizmo who is totally lazy and demanding to be carried.

Hilarious and utterly heart-breaking, this book perfectly captures the joy of pet ownership.

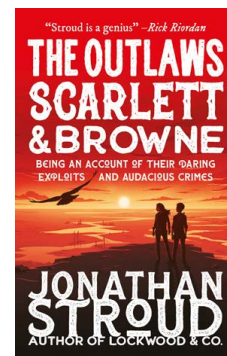

The Outlaws Scarlett & Browne by Jonathan Stroud

Scarlett McCain is a shoot-first ask-questions-later kind of outlaw. She scrapes by on bank heists, her wits – and never looking back.

She's on the run from her latest crime when she comes across Albert Browne. He is the sole survivor of a horrific accident, and against her better judgement, Scarlett agrees to guide him to safety. This is a mistake. Soon there are men with dogs and guns and explosives hot on their heels. Scarlett's used to being chased by the law, but this is extreme. It was only a little bank she'd robbed . . .

As they flee together across the wilds, fighting off monstrous beasts, and dodging their pursuers, Scarlett comes to realize that Albert Browne is hiding a terrible secret. And that he may be the most dangerous threat of all.

In this fast-paced, quick-witted whirlwind of a story, Jonathan Stroud introduces two unlikely allies – the outlaws Scarlett and Browne – who are about to become the most notorious renegades in all that's left of Britain.

Both books are available to borrow from the School Library.
