

The Sora Online Library

What is Sora?

Sora is a digital library where you can access a wealth of different fiction and non-fiction EBooks and audiobooks for free.

What are the benefits of Sora?

- You can both read EBooks and listen to audiobooks of your choice.
- You can adjust text size, font or audio settings to make the texts accessible to you.
- You can easily view and sync your progress.
- You can look up new or unfamiliar words.
- You can add and export bookmarks, highlights and notes to help you keep track of your reading.
- If the book you want to read is being read by someone else you can place books on hold to reserve them.
- You will earn achievements for books read!

How do I start on Sora?

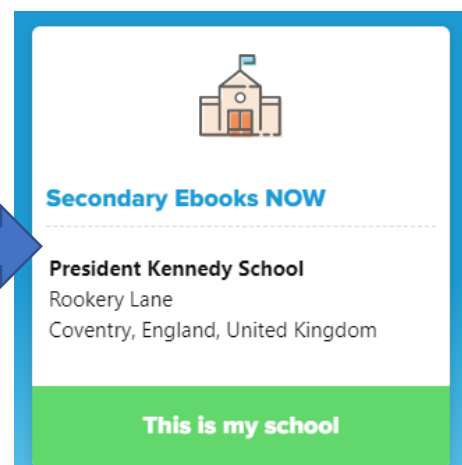

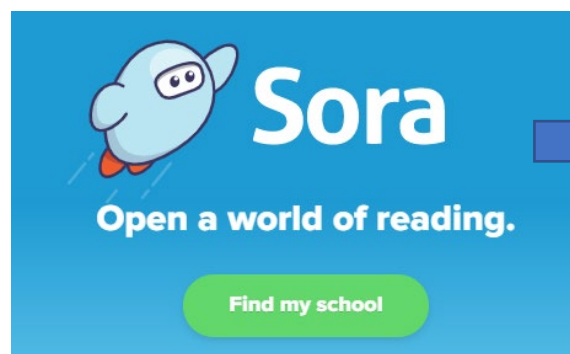

1. Download the app on a device or go to soraapp.com on a PC. Alternatively, there is a link here: <https://soraapp.com/>

Q soraapp.com X |

2. Search to find President Kennedy School.

3. Login with your assigned username and password (you will be given this in tutor time).

Sign into your school

President Kennedy School ▼

Username

Password

Sign in

4. Find a book.

You can either search for a book/ audiobook that you know you want to read (use the suggested reading list for your year group to help you with this) ...

🔍 Search for a book

...or you can choose from a range of genres.

Popular Subjects

1,052	Young Adult Fiction	446	Juvenile Fiction	442	Young Adult Literature	362	Fiction
331	Fantasy	276	Juvenile Literature	263	Classic Literature	238	Romance
182	Nonfiction	159	Thriller	145	Science Fiction	138	Juvenile Nonfiction
138	Mystery	135	Historical Fiction	127	Humor (Fiction)	93	Suspense

5. Once you have chosen your book, click 'borrow' and it will be yours to read until the return date – but don't worry, if you need it for a bit longer, you will be able to renew your book.

Why the Whales Came • Michael Morpurgo

Borrow

Read sample

Add to list